

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

KEVIN LYNELL KING,
Plaintiff,

No. C 09-5996 SI (pr)

ORDER

v.

WILLIAM H. DuBOIS; et al.,
Defendants.

This action was dismissed and judgment entered almost a year ago, on July 19, 2010. Plaintiff filed a "request for 30 day continuance" on July 8, 2011, on the ground that he has been denied access to the courts, legal assistance and a law library. The request is DENIED because there is no need for any continuance in this action that has long been closed. (Docket # 26.) The court does not construe the document to be a request for an extension of time to file a notice of appeal or to reopen the time to appeal because it does not mention an appeal and the deadline by which to file such a request passed many months ago. See Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 4. Plaintiff should not file any more motions or requests in this closed action.

If plaintiff wants to complain about a denial of access to the courts at his current prison, he may file a new civil rights complaint but should do so in the appropriate venue. The court in the appropriate venue for a claim concerning the conditions of confinement at Pleasant Valley State Prison in Coalinga is the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
